

STORY CIRCLE FACILITATION AND TRAINING FEES

TARA BROOKE WATKINS, PHD

Step 1: Consultation

- Detailed conversation with client about story, goals, scope and purpose of engagement (facilitation only, number of circles, stand alone or step in larger project, training, etc.)
- Discussion of dates, deadlines, schedule, space, set up, themes, potential questions
- At approximately 45-60 minutes, consultation is free

Step 2: Story Circle

- Tara will travel to space on requested date to facilitate story circle. (Travel and accommodations will be covered by client including meals)
- Story circles run between 1.5-3 hours depending on participant engagement, but the ideal allotted time should be three hours to allow for relaxed participation
- Participant numbers ideally should be 8-12. If more than 15, a second story circle group should be formed.
- One story circle includes: facilitator prep, research, and self-care processing; pre-circle participant activity; story and cross-talk facilitation; post-circle decompression activity; client follow-up
- Total fee for the above: $500 ($400 if training involved, $300 for each additional story circle within same engagement)

Step 3: Training

- Training MUST include an initial story circle experience (see above) and MUST include at least a one hour break between story circle and training. Overnight breaks are welcomed.
- Training will take 3-5 hours depending on scope of project and will include the following: training guide and discussion, story circle debrief, opening activity development, story circle question development, post-circle activity development
- Participants will be equipped with plan to run a story circle for a community of choice
- Total fee for the above: $750 (does not include initial story circle $400)
